ORANGE HILL RESTAURANT OPENS NEW "O BAR"

Fine dining restaurant remodels bar into a modern lounge area with live entertainment and new menu

ORANGE, Calif., March 24, 2011 – Orange Hill, a fine dining restaurant known for its skyline view from Orange County to Catalina and innovative twist on California cuisine, remodels their bar into a modern lounge area with a sophisticated look and feel incorporating plush lounge furniture, Murano orange chandeliers, granite countertops, fireplace, orange grand piano with live entertainment and a new bar menu with small plate appetizers, signature cocktails and a new Happy Hour menu served from 4 to 7 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Orange Hill Restaurant is known for its amazing location on a hilltop in the City of Orange with a panoramic view of Orange County. The OC Register named the restaurant "#1 Best Romantic Restaurant in OC with a View". Orange Hill upholds the essence of traditional dining and has now taken the next step to add a large sense of innovation in their bar, now named the "O Bar". The "O Bar" has embraced the theme of residing in the City of "Orange" and being branded "Orange Hill". The "O Bar" has splashes of orange throughout the decor, including comfortable and unique lounge furniture, side tables, hand-blown glass chandeliers, custom lacquered orange piano and handmade pillows.

The "O Bar" has also launched a new bar menu with signature cocktails, wine flights, after dinner drinks, cigars and a robust Happy Hour menu. Happy Hour is served Monday-Friday from 4 to 7 p.m. with price points from $5 to $7, including menu items such as Lamb Chops served over a bed of creamy mashed potatoes drizzled with homemade sweet & peppery sauce served in a martini glass for $7 to signature Onion Rings made-from-scratch with buttermilk served with a barbecue and ranch sauce for dipping for $5 and homemade Four Cheese Flatbread prepared with parmesan, gouda, mozzarella and bleu cheese with fresh Roma tomatoes and basil for $6.

Orange Hill Restaurant's "O Bar" is opened Sunday-Thursday from 4:30 to 10 p.m. and Friday-Saturday from 4:30 to 11 p.m. The "O Bar" is also available for private parties that can be booked through Orange Hill's special events department at 714.997.1109. About Orange Hill Restaurant

Orange Hill Restaurant was developed and built by Specialty Restaurants Corporation in 1972 by founder David Tallichet. Mr. Tallichet was inspired by the exquisite view that the property offered in addition to the eclectic architecture it upheld. His inspiration for classic cuisine and great service formed the Orange Hill Restaurant. Orange Hill offers a fine dining experience while enjoying an endless view of Orange County. Like a hilltop hideaway, the restaurant sits on top of the hills of Orange with a view from Orange County to Catalina. The large property welcomes you with cascading waterfalls, koi ponds and a large Spanish style fireplace. Orange Hill offers a sophisticated lounge area, the "O Bar", with live entertainment, plush lounge furniture, fireplace and special bar menu with decadent small plate appetizers and signature cocktails. Orange Hill's patio offers an unforgettable view while enjoying a cocktail, bottle of wine, appetizer or dinner by the fire. Orange Hill also offers large event venues for Corporate Events & Meeting Planning, Weddings, Socials, Themed Events and Private Parties.
